Thanks Sarah.

Valois: can you check with Lynne at some point regarding her availability?

This is a better idea than pulling another FTE from within Unit.

Sarah: I would support Valois' proposal if Lynne is available.

Hi Douglas,

Given Lisa's reply below, I am prompted to say Lynne is the logistics queen of the universe. Can she come to the hearings & help me out? That would make me very happy.

Valois - we do not typically staff the registration table for hearings like that -especially when they are not on site in Denver (when they are on site in Denver, I think the program usually seeks volunteers to assist). We don't really have other folks in OCPI we could send. The program should plan to bring 2 folks from your program (or from the wider OWP) for that (it would be good cross-training!). I may have free time and can help but you shouldn't rely on that since we are not certain the level of media involvement.

Subject: request for an additional person to attend Dewey-Burdock public hearings

Hello Lisa & Andrew,

We discussed the logistical details for the Dewey-Burdock public hearings today and realized that we will need a 5th person at the hearing. We thought we would start with your group to see if someone might be available.

The posts we need to fill include:

- 2 people at the registration desk; (Lisa & 5th person)
- 2 people doing the community outreach session (Valois & Douglas), while people are still registering; and
- 2 people at the front desk during the hearing (Elyana & Valois – the community outreach & hearing will not overlap).

Our thoughts are, people may be showing up to join the hearing throughout the course of the hearing. There may also be press showing up, which Lisa will be called away from the registration desk to handle. We also need a person to bring the hearing registration cards from the registration desk to the front desk to keep requests to speak in order and in front of Elyana so she can call people up to speak.

Our hearing dates are now finalized:

The South Dakota hearings are going to be the week of Dec 5 -9. The Valentine, NE hearing will be November 29th. We can fly into Rapid City Tuesday morning, hold the hearing that afternoon & evening then fly back the 30th.

If you would like to meet to talk about this, please let me know.

Thanks! (Lisa, I will send the travel details in a separate email.)
